- Upon receipt of this request form and payment MMI will research of your account/file
- If there is no balance due on your account, we will email a certificate to you for you to present with your County Rental License Application

Prince George's County

Prince George's County requires certification that there are no outstanding covenants violations at the time this certificate is issued, but does not require a physical inspection of the exterior of your property. Records from prior inspections, if any, reflect:

- There are no outstanding covenants violations remaining unresolved
- There are outstanding covenants violations that must be corrected prior to the issuance of this certificate. When corrected, you must notify management and remit payment of $75 to cover the cost of re-inspection. Upon satisfactory re-inspection, a clear certificate will be issued

Prince George's Certificates are faxed to Prince George's County Department of Environmental Resources Housing Enforcement – Prince George's County Rental License at 301-883-6050 on your behalf. A copy will be emailed to you.

By submitting this application and affixing your signature below, you affirm that the payment made herewith is made by check with sufficient funds or by credit card and agree not to stop payment or dispute the charge. In the event payment fails, management will take reimbursement from the association, notify the association board of directors and charge your association assessment account for the amount of the failed payment plus a returned payment processing charge of $50.00. These charges, you consent to be made, as additional assessments to your account, subject to collection as any ordinary assessment charge. We will also notify the County licensing agency.
